

MOROCCO 2018 DRAWING AND PAINTING TOUR with A-F Fulgence 13 – 25 October 2018

A-F (Anne-France) was born in Morocco and has for many months during her youth enjoyed the hospitality of the Berber people and spent time drawing and painting the wild landscapes of the deep Moroccan South.

This 12 day tour will traverse a large part of southern Morocco from the ancient city of Marrakesh, over the spectacular landscape of the High Atlas Mountains to the northern edge of the vast Sahara.

As a small group of like-minded people you will experience the wonderful world of the indigenous Amazigh (Berber) people, and the power and beauty of the Moroccan landscape and culture. You will have an experienced team of hosts including professional Amazigh guide Abdenabi Imelouane. Accommodation is provided in comfortable traditional guesthouses where you will enjoy the delights of Amazigh food and hospitality, the warmth and good humour of the people, and insights into both the Islamic world and Amazigh spirituality and contemporary life.

On the journey, under the tutelage of A-F, there will be time to paint draw and record the landscape for later work. Working with light, colour and creative expression as you travel through the spectacular landscapes.

Amazigh Cultural tour is the choice of some recognized artist in Australia, Wendy Sharpe and Elisabeth Cummings, have both used their services.

PRICE: based on a group of minimum 8, maximum 10 AUD$4,860 twin-share. Single supplement AUD$1,100
